Your Right to File a Privacy Complaint

- You have a right to receive information about how to file a complaint about the privacy of your personal health information.
- You have a right to receive the ASAS Health "Notice of Privacy Practices", which tells you how your personal health information will be used and disclosed. The Notice of Privacy Practices also tells you how to file a privacy complaint.
- You may choose a representative to represent your interests during the complaint process.
- Your services will not be affected by any complaints you make.
- ASAS Health cannot punish or retaliate against you for filing a complaint, cooperating in any investigation, or refusing to agree to something that you believe to be unlawful.
